Equal Measures 2030

How 613 gender advocates around the world prioritize gender-related policies

Each respondents had 3 votes to identify the most pressing policies

And with less than 7% of votes: Access to comprehensive health services, Girls and women in conflict/post-conflict situations, Women and the effects of climatic and environmental changes, Access to public infrastructure, including clean energy, water and sanitation, Public finance, public spending and taxation